

Expectations for Student Work at the School of the Arts

I. Come to school prepared to learn and succeed.

- Do your homework; no credit will be given for late homework.
- Bring your textbooks, notebooks, pens, pencils, and calculators to class.
- Bring your USB flash drive or other manageable data storage device.

II. Come to class on time and participate actively in class every day.

- Remember, school is the job you do today to prepare for your job in the future.
- Treat your teachers as respected mentors/coaches.

III. Complete daily and long-term assignments carefully, thoroughly, and on time.

- Use MLA format for all papers.
- Use blue or black ink for handwritten assignments. Use pencil in math and science classes.
- Make sure your finished products are of display/publishable quality.
- Late work on major assignments will receive a grade no higher than 69.
- Plan for the inevitable computer/printing glitch.

IV. Follow all class and school rules.

- Remember, rules are governing premises that help you to succeed.
- Not following rules results in specific consequences.

V. Respect yourself; respect teachers, staff, administrators, and other students at all times by remembering that together we are a community of inspired and inspiring learners.
